MEDICAL COLLEGE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.
At a meeting of the Board of Trustees and Faculty, Dr. A. K. KINLOCH was unanimously elected to the vacant Professorship of Materia Medica and Therapeutics.

LATE NEWSPAPERS.—Messrs. M. M. QUINN & BRO. have furnished us with Frank Leslie's Ladies' Magazine for July, Harper's Weekly, and the New York Tribune and Herald. Messrs. QUINN have also received an extra supply of those stationery packages which have been so much sought after.

The following are the numbers which drew the principal prizes in the Havana plan, Kentucky State Lottery, Class C, June 10th, 1866.
No. 12461; $100,000; No. 18405, $50,000; No. 10062, $25,000; No. 8172, $10,000; No. 11890, $5000; No. 9990, $2850.

TALL COTTON.—We are in receipt of a fine specimen of the "Green Seed" Cotton plant, grown on Mr. H. L. P. McCOMB's plantation, "Elihu Grove," Christ Church Parish. The stalk is thirty-seven inches in height from the bed, has eighteen branches, two bolls, and no less than eighty-seven forms. There has been one blossom on it. The general condition of the crop, we are happy to state, is uncommonly good.

OUTRAGE.—During the riot of Sunday evening, a respectable young man of the name of BRANTFORD was knocked down in Broad-street and dangerously injured. The attendant surgeon has expressed doubts of his recovery, and he now lies in a very critical condition. It is to be hoped that, if the party dealing the blow cannot be found, the kindness of the riot will be so severely dealt with, as to afford a wholesome warning against such conduct in future.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Yesterday morning a loaded army revolver was sold at the auction of Messrs. BOWMAN & SINGCO. The purchaser stepped up to Mr. BOWMAN and asked for a piece of paper to wrap the pistol in, and while that gentleman moved to get the paper, the pistol, through careless handling, went off, and the ball passed just where Mr. BOWMAN's head was before he moved. This incident should be a warning to all persons who deal in firearms not to sell them carelessly. People will be careless with such things, and sometimes serious accidents are the result.

TAKE FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY COMMUNION.—We congratulate our friends of the UPPER WARD on the opportunity afforded them by the ladies of the Church of the Holy Communion to spend a pleasant money in a useful way, and at the same time pass a pleasant evening. Most of the public amusements of the city are conducted so far down town as to put them beyond the reach of up-town citizens who are not so fortunate as to possess carriages, and as the number of these is very great, we doubt not that the present opportunity will be improved by hundreds of the young of both sexes longing for amusement.

THE BROWNE CASE.—We are glad to see, by the following extract from the New York World, that the prisoners in this case, who possess the sympathy of our whole community, have met with mercy at the hands of the President. The World is, however, mistaken in one point. The soldiers were not negroes, but white men, belonging to a Maine regiment.

The President has commuted the death sentence of the South Carolinians who were tried and convicted by court-martial in Charleston of killing some negro soldiers while on duty. The evidence against the parties was purely circumstantial.

HERMETICALLY SELF-SEALING JARS.—A new and useful invention for household use, known by the above appellation, are to be found at the extensive crockery establishment of Messrs. WARR & SAGE, No. 5 Hayne-street. These jars are of glass, with a metallic cover that contains a rubber washer, which perfectly excludes the air, and so simple that any lady can store her own preserves, shrimps, oysters, meats, &c., with little trouble, and the least possible danger of failure. In addition to this, they need never be destroyed by opening, as the cases usually are, but will last in use for years.

THE PALMETTO BASE BALL CLUB GAME.—On Saturday last we had the pleasure of witnessing quite an exciting game between two teams of the above-named Club, on the Citadel Square. The batting and fielding on both sides were far superior and better attended to on this day than on any previous occasion. Messrs. EAKIN and AUSTIN, by splendid hits to the left field, secured home runs, and were loudly cheered by those present. The score at the end of the seventh inning, which terminated the evening's sport, was seventeen to seventeen, which, we must say, reflected great credit on the playing qualities of the above-named Club. We are most happy to see this Club succeeding so well, and we hope are long to announce the organization of others.

GOOD FOR WEAK EYES.—No part of the human organization has received more careful study than the delicately constructed optical apparatus on which depends all the delights of vision. In spite, however, of minute dissections, and the most painful research, but little had been accomplished in supplying the defects of nature in the visual organ until very recently. Fine spectacles have been in use for many years, but in most instances they were but poor substitutes for real eyes.

It was reserved for Dr. BENNETT, the renowned optician, to discover and introduce in common use the Australian pebbles, which enable the near-sighted or the aged to see, with the quick and clear perception of the eagle eye of youth. Dr. B. can be consulted daily at his office, Parlor No. 4 Mills House.

GOOD WORDS.—An illustrated monthly magazine, edited by NORMAN MACLEOD, D. D., one of her Majesty's chaplains.
Mr. JOHN RUSSELL has sent us the June number of this very clever monthly. Contents: 1. Madonna Mary, by Mrs. OLIPHANT. 2. Home and Memory, by J. T. HOWARD, D. D. 3. An Overland Journey from San Francisco to New York, by way of Salt Lake City, by E. H. VERNER, Lieutenant A. N. 4. The Island Church, by the Dean of Ebury. 5. Some effects of Intemperance on the Brain, by a Medical Man. 6. London Street Traffic. 7. Admiral Fitzroy. 8. Evasions of the Law, by Rev. HENRY W. HOLLAND. 9. A Remembrance, by M. B. SMEDLEY. 10. "Walking Worthy of God," by the Editor. 11. Between the Shower. 12. Ruth Thornbury, or the Old Maid's Story, by WILLIAM GILBERT. Published in London by S. STRAHAN & CO.

The OLD GUARD for July has arrived, containing an elegant steel engraving of Gen. WADE HAMPTON. We have not yet received ours, but have a look at a copy through the kindness of Mr. F. VOGLER, No. 108 Market-street, where we saw quite a number of sterling papers and magazines; among others the July numbers of the following: DEMOCRAT'S Fashion Magazine, the Catholic Magazine, American Miscellany, Atlantic Monthly, etc., etc.

Mr. VOGLER has now a fine supply of Gorman papers, viz: N. Y. Staats Zeitung, Frank Leslie's German Illustrated paper, N. Y. Demokrat, Helldritische Journal and Kriminal Zeitung, and the New Yorker Journal. Also has the Spanish paper La Cronica, the Eco d'Italia, and the Courrier des Etats Unis.

YOUNG AMERICA FIRE COMPANY.—This energetic and indefatigable company, young in years, and young in materia, celebrated their first anniversary yesterday by a parade and supper. They turned out some forty strong, and made a very handsome appearance. They were escorted by the Charleston Fire Company, and proceeded by the band of the 6th Regulars. The parade passed beneath the windows of our office, and we had scarcely ceased our remarks of admiration, when an alarm of fire was raised, and both companies started off at full speed, to the great consternation of the musicians, who had not seen that laid down in the bill. Fortunately the alarm proved false, and the parade was finished without further disturbance.

At night a collation was served by that intemperate caterer, T. Tully, at the Masonic Hall, of which the Young America Fire Engine Company, with the Board of Fire Masters and the Charleston Fire Engine Company as their guests, partook. Wit and jollity, and song and laughter, ruled the evening, and the entertainment was continued to the wee small hours of the morning.

The following are the officers elected for the ensuing year:

A. N. PUNDI, President.
JOHN F. BRITTON, Vice-President.
A. W. ROSE, Jr., Second Director.
WM. MAHONEY, Third Director.
P. HARVEY, Fourth Director.
W. B. SIBLEY, Secretary.
JAS. VERONESE, Treasurer.
M. CAREY, Axman.
C. HARVEY, Axman.
D. MAHONEY, Jail-Keeper.
P. GOBEY, Steward.
M. DIVINE, Steward.

HIGH-HANDER VILLAINY.—On Saturday afternoon two negroes entered the house of Mr. O'DONNELL, on Meeting-street, and while one stood at the door, the other went up to Mr. O'DONNELL and commenced talking to him about some work, which he said he had heard he wanted done. Mr. O'DONNELL told him what he wanted some work done, and described to him what it was. The negro then said he did not understand that kind of work, but that his companion, who was with him, did. Mr. O'DONNELL, however, had strength enough left to cry murder. This alarmed the rascals and they took to flight. The one who struck the blow escaped, but the other was caught by a couple of respectable freedmen, who were passing by and held the noise. They carried him towards the GUIN House and turned him over to a policeman who then met. Too much credit cannot be given to the colored men who thus distinguished themselves in the cause of law and order, and we wish we were able to give their names. Such incidents as these will cause people to be very much on their guard with strangers.

THE METHODIST CHURCH IN COURT.—A curious case is now being tried in the Superior Provoct Court of this military district, growing out of and involving the right of possession in an African church. In the course of the trial, the questions of the constitutionality of the Civil Rights Bill, and whether the decisions of Provoct Courts in civil matters are binding in time of peace. The case is an argument, but can hardly reach a final decision without reference to the Supreme Court.

We take the above from the Charleston correspondence of the New York World. What a pity it is that persons who pretend to write of Southern matters for Northern papers, do not take more pains to inform themselves in regard to the things of which they write. The case in the Provoct Court, alluded to in the above extract, has nothing whatever to do with any African church. It arises entirely from the will of JOHN MCKEE, and relates to the possession of certain lots and houses. There is no excuse for such ignorance as that here displayed, for the whole case has been published in the True News, and the most ordinary attention to the evidence would have prevented such an egregious blunder.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS AND COMMON PLEAS.—Court met at 10 A. M. The jury were called by the Clerk, but several were found to be unavoidably absent, and others had been excused. A new venire was made out to fill the vacancies. In the interim the Court was occupied with hearing several civil cases. It was nearly 2 o'clock before the regular business of the Court was taken up. Two parties were arraigned for grand larceny, but as the hour was too late to enter upon any fresh case, his Honor adjourned the Court until 10 A. M. this morning, when the case of State vs. Hugh Cullen, for murder, will be tried.

MAYOR'S COURT, Monday Morning, June 25.—The proceedings of this Court have recently been extremely barren of interest. To-day a visitor from Summerville was fined $3 for lying down drunk in the streets. His Honor remarked that the usual fine for citizens for this same offence was $5, but that in consideration of his rustic ignorance, he would be easier upon him.

An individual who was found drunk, and deposited $5, forfeited the same. A stray swine was likewise forfeited, no owner appearing.

PROVOCT COURT, June 25.—United States vs. Thomas Williams, (colored), and Sam Betts, (colored).—Larceny of Clothes.—Captain Loo, sworn: Yesterday, about 12 o'clock, received a notice from the officer at the Guard House. arrest him, which I did. The property belonged to Mrs. Knight. The articles were at the Guard House when I took the fellow in. He hid some of the things in a hole where they could not be found. Guilty; $50, or sixty days' hard labor on the streets.

United States vs. Henry Mitchell (colored).—Riot, Resist Police.—Policeman Jackson, sworn: Yesterday afternoon, about six o'clock, there was a large crowd gathered at the corner of Meeting-street and South Bay, making a great noise and using disagreeable language to ladies and gentlemen going by. Lieut. Hendricks, of Police, riding by, ordered it to be stopped; in endeavoring to stop it, and remove crowd from Magazine, he resisted very much, and said he was damned if large crowd go off; used force and drove him off; large crowd gathered at the foot of the mound, and defendant entered; did not wish to have trouble with him, advised him to go away and stop talking; he called me down and said he wished to see me; going down he struck me on the face with his fist, knocking off my hat and knocking me some distance, without knocking me down; he then ran, and I pursued and captured him corner of King and Lambton streets; there was a great crowd gathered there, but the policemen on the spot kept them back, and took prisoner to Guard House.

Prisoner's statement.—I had just gone to Battery, when a parcel of boys were on a bomb-proof; Police ordered us off; we went; Jackson struck a boy, and I asked him what he did it for; he came off the mound and struck me; I struck him back; knocked my pocket book out of my pocket, and would not let me pick it up. $375.

Negro boy, sworn: Confirms prisoner's statement, except instead of saying "Policeman prisoner's statement, said he struck of me; Guilty; $10, or twenty days' hard labor on the streets.

This last case arises out of the riot of Sunday afternoon, and the proceedings show the necessity of a prosecuting officer on behalf of the United States to see that offenders against the laws meet with their just deserts. Riot is a capital offence at common law; but parties are brought up before this Court for complicity in riots, and in their trial the riotous conduct is left out of consideration, and the offence treated as simple disorderly conduct.

The Horrors of Indigestion.

You complain of your stomach, unfortunate dyspeptic; but ought not your stomach to complain of you? Possibly the pangs you endure are simply the stomach's method of taking revenge upon you for neglecting and abusing it. Perhaps you have never made an effort to improve its condition, but on the other hand are continually cramming it with unwholesome and incongruous food. Have you ever tried HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a proper diet, and regular meals? The Bitters in a week would put your digestive apparatus in perfect order, regulate the flow of bile in accordance with the laws of health, and produce just so much aperient action as would be necessary for your good; and when you are once all right, judicious and regular dieting, with a little of the Tonic now and then, would keep you so. If you have neglected these means of cure, do not blame your stomach for its rebellion. It is merely nature's hint that she wants help. If you neglect it, the next thing may be inflammation, or Scirrhus Cancer, or some other violent and dangerous disease. There is such a thing as being too late in these matters. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS will cure Dyspepsia; but Dyspepsia may engender diseases which defy all restoratives.
